

Guillaume Fromont - Member of the Management Board of CACEIS

Guillaume Fromont, 54, is a graduate of the Institut d'Etudes Politiques of Paris. He joined Banque Paribas in 1979 within IT management department. In 1982, he was made responsible for project management and relations with the French financial authorities within the management of the administrative activities (Securities) of the Finance department and in 1984 was named deputy director. In 1988, Guillaume Fromont joined the management team of the securities services department of Banque Indosuez as deputy head. At the end of 1994, he was named as director of securities services. In November 2001, at the creation of the securities services business line of Crédit Agricole S.A. Guillaume Fromont was named deputy managing director and member of the board of Fastnet France and CA-IS Corporate Trust. In December 2001, he was named chairman of Fastnet Luxembourg, Fastnet Belgium and Fastnet Netherlands and CEO of Crédit Agricole Indosuez Luxembourg which became Crédit Agricole Investor Services Bank Luxembourg following the separation from Crédit Agricole Indosuez Luxembourg. Today, in the CACEIS Group, Guillaume Fromont heads up Business Development and is also responsible for all entities outside France.